

Member Rights

Medicaid recipients in a Medicaid plan have certain rights. You have the right to:

- Be treated with courtesy and respect.
- Have your dignity and privacy respected at all times.
- Receive a quick and useful response to your questions and requests.
- Know who is providing medical services and who is responsible for your care.
- Know what member services are available, including whether an interpreter is available if you do not speak English.
- Know what rules and laws apply to your conduct.
- Be given easy-to-follow information about your diagnosis, and openly discuss the treatment you need, choices of treatments and alternatives, risks, and how these treatments will help you.
- Participate in making decisions with your provider about your health care, including the right to say no to any treatment, except as otherwise provided by law.
- Be given full information about other ways to help pay for your health care.
- Know if the provider or facility accepts the Medicare assignment rate.
- Be told prior to getting a service how much it may cost you.
- Get a copy of a bill and have the charges explained to you.
- Get medical treatment or special help for people with disabilities, regardless of race, national origin, religion, handicap, or source of payment.
- Receive treatment for any health emergency that will get worse if you do not get treatment.
- Know if medical treatment is for experimental research and to say yes or no to participating in such research.
- Make a complaint when your rights are not respected.
- Ask for another doctor when you do not agree with your doctor (second medical opinion).
- Get a copy of your medical records, and ask to have information added or corrected if needed.
- Have your medical records kept private and shared only when required by law or with your approval.
- Decide how you want medical decisions made if you can't make them yourself (advanced directive).
- File a grievance about any matter other than a plan's decision about your services.
- Appeal a plan's decision about your services.
- Receive services from a provider who is not part of our plan (out-of-network) if we cannot find a provider for you who is part of our plan.
- Freely exercise your rights without the plan or its network providers treating you badly.
- Get care without fear of restraint or seclusion used as a means of coercion, discipline, convenience, or retaliation.
- Get information about:
  - AmeriHealth Caritas Florida and its health care providers.
  - Your rights and responsibilities.
  - Your benefits and services.
  - The cost of health care services and any required cost sharing.
- Be given an opportunity to provide suggestions for changes to AmeriHealth Caritas Florida's rights and responsibilities policy.

Member Responsibilities

Medicaid recipients in a Medicaid plan also have certain responsibilities. You have the responsibility to:

- Give accurate information about your health to your plan and providers.
- Tell your provider about unexpected changes in your health condition.
- Talk to your provider to understand your health problems and agree on a treatment plan. Make sure you understand the course of action and what is expected of you.
- Listen to your provider, follow instructions for care, and ask questions.
- Keep your appointments, and notify your provider if you will not be able to keep an appointment.
- Be responsible for your actions if treatment is refused or if you do not follow the health care provider's instructions.
- Make sure payment is made for non-covered services you receive.
- Follow health care facility conduct rules and regulations.
- Treat health care staff with respect.
- Tell us if you have problems with any health care staff.
- Use the emergency room only for real emergencies.
- Notify your case manager if you have a change in information (e.g., address, phone number).
- Have a plan for emergencies and access this plan if necessary for your safety.
- Report fraud, abuse, and overpayment.
